OBITUARY

BENTON LEE PHILLIPS
Benton Lee Phillips was born at Morris, Ill., Dec. 22, 1848. Here he lived, went to school, married and raised his children, bringing them up in an ideal way on a large farm.

When 44 years of age he moved with his family to Chicago, where he remained until 1906, when he came to California and settled in San Francisco, where he stayed until shortly after the earthquake, and 14 years ago moved to Torrance. Since that time he was a well known figure in Torrance and its immediate vicinity.

For several years he was employed by the Dominguez Land Corporation, but for the last year had been a special officer at the First National Bank of Torrance, where he made a host of friends.

Mr. Phillips passed away Friday at his home, 209 Emerald street, Redondo Beach, where he moved from Torrance just four months ago.

He leaves a widow, Mrs. Alwilda L. Phillips; a son, Roy, of Chicago, and a daughter, Mrs. F. H. Curler, of Torrance. There are also three grandchildren.

Mr. Phillips was a member of the Congregational church since boyhood and was highly respected by all who knew him, and his genial face will be much missed on the streets of Torrance.

Rev. Francis A. Zeller officiated at the funeral. Interment was in Inglewood. Six associates—P. G. Briney, J. B. Johnston, Coy Farquhar, Calvin Alverson, C. A. Paxman, and Henry F. Rees—were pallbearers.

ELIZABETH McDOUGALL
Elizabeth C. McDougall, 1062 Alhene street, Lomita; age 67 years; wife of Wm. McDougall, interment at Inglewood. O. W. Stone.

A watch today is as much an accessory of dress as it is a timekeeper.

The Ladies should be equipped with two watches, the strap watch for shopping, business or sport, and dress wristlets for social functions.

The Men likewise wear the sturdy strap watch for business or sport and an appropriate pocket watch for social affairs.

Come in now and arrange for a showing of these. They are really quite the thing.
